

Fundamentals of Executive Protection

2-Day Certificate Course

Master the Core Skills of VIP Security Operations

Are you ready to elevate your expertise or step confidently into the dynamic field of Executive Protection? This immersive 2-day certificate course delivers essential strategies, real-world insights, and hands-on learning tailored for today's security landscape.

Course Overview

Developed by the renowned Executive Protection Institute (EPI), the Fundamentals of Executive Protection course equips participants with practical tools and intelligence-driven methodologies used by elite protectors worldwide. Whether you're an experienced professional or new to the field, this course offers a strong foundation in the art and science of VIP protection.

How You'll Learn

- Interactive tabletop simulations
- Real-world case studies
- Group discussions and scenario planning
- Practical exercises designed to build real-time decision-making and situational awareness

Who Should Attend

Ideal for:

- Executive protection newcomers
- Security professionals and managers
- Law enforcement and military personnel
- Corporate, campus, or private security professionals

Whether you're sharpening your edge or beginning your journey, this course offers a robust overview that prepares you for high-stakes protection work in any environment.

 Location: Hosted by Gonzaga University, Spokane, WA

 Date: December 18–19, 2025

 Duration: 2 Full Days

 Certificate of Completion Provided

Topics Covered

Security Concepts

Fundamentals of Risk Analysis

Fundamentals of Threat Assessment

Introduction to Advance

Adversary's Perspective and Behavior

Route analysis

Surveillance Detection

Tactical communication for the Security Professional

Special Events and Media

Practical and Tabletop Exercises