

How to become a bodyguard

Have you ever thought about becoming a “Bodyguard” or protecting VIPs?

This is an informative 90 minute interactive, open discussion and we strongly encourage you to engage the presenters with questions. This webinar is designed to introduce men and women to the growing professional career field of bodyguards, also known as personal protection and executive protection. The presentation will review what you can do to get a job protecting celebrities, executives, officials, politicians, religious and world leaders.

Find out what this career is really about!

Then this program is for YOU!

We have gone beyond all bodyguard schools. At the Executive Protection Institute (EPI), we encourage our students to be proactive and cater to the client's needs while avoiding problems and threats.

Train with some of the most experienced, and honorable pros in the business.

EPI can say: We Put the Pro in Protection

This webinar will answer the following questions:

WHO is qualified?

WHERE is the work?

WHEN to start?

WHAT assignments can I expect?

WHY consider this career?

HOW much money can I earn?

In order to communicate throughout the webinar, you will need a working microphone and camera installed or connected to your device.*
